

APPLIED MATHEMATICS

OPEN HOUSE

&

INFORMATION NIGHT

Monday, February 6, 2006 from 4:30 - 6:30pm
Middlesex College, Room 204

Short Talks: (1) Opening Remarks
- Dr. Gerry McKeon, Professor & Undergraduate Chair

Mathematical Biology: Fun or Science?
- Olga Krakovska, PhD candidate

What It Is Like to be in Applied Mathematics
- Courtney Pitcher, AM Honors Specialization, year 3

Applied Math in Computational Materials Physics and Biophysics
- Dr. Colin Denniston, Assistant Professor & Graduate Chair

.....

Pizza and soft drinks will be available

Faculty and senior students will be available for discussion and counselling.

Note that you should come to this if you are interested in specializing in Applied Mathematics OR if you are interested in specializing in something else and taking a minor in Applied Mathematics.

If you plan to attend, please return the section below to your instructor OR e-mail akager@uwo.ca

I plan to attend the Applied Mathematics Open House on Monday, February 6 at 4:30pm.

Name (Optional)